

STATE OF CALIFORNIA
WORKERS' COMPENSATION APPEALS BOARD

Case No. _____

Applicant vs.

Defendants.

ORDER APPROVING COMPROMISE AND RELEASE

Based upon the reasons given in the settlement,
 medical reports on file,
the settlement appears fair and reasonable and is deemed adequate.

- A serious and legitimate issue of injury AOE/COE exists, which, if resolved against the employee would totally bar employee recovery of workers' compensation benefits. (Thomas vs. Sports Chalet, Inc. (1977), 42 CCC 625), as set forth in the Compromise and Release.
- The applicant has been advised and the Workers' Compensation Judge has considered the release of death benefits in determining the adequacy of this settlement.
- The applicant has been advised and the Workers' Compensation Judge has considered the Rodgers release in determining the adequacy of this settlement. (Rodgers vs. W.C.A.B., et al(1985) 50 CCC 299)
- This Compromise and Release does not settle future Labor Code section 139.5 benefits.
- Social Security and Medicare Addendum on page 2.

The parties to the above-entitled action having filed a Compromise and Release herein, on _____ settling this case for $ _____, and requesting that it be approved; and this Board having considered the entire record, including said Compromise and Release, now finds that it should be approved.
